

Ich bin im Schatten der Bröhmer Berge aufgewachsen.
Ich war umgeben von dem Fluss Tollense.
Meine Vorfahren sind von Deutscher Abstammung
Mein Name ist Andrea Lemm.

I tipu ake au i raro i te maru o ngā maunga Bröhmer ki Tiamani.
Kua karapotia au e ngā wai o te awa Tollense.
Ko Tiamana toku iwi.
Ko Andrea Lemm toku ingoa.

I grew up in the shelter of the hills Bröhmer in Germany.
I was surrounded by the river Tollense.
My ancestors are of German ethnicity.
My name is Andrea Lemm.

Andrea is a social worker based in Dunedin, New Zealand. She has been working in statutory Child Protection over the past 20 years in England and in Aotearoa, New Zealand.

Andrea is passionate about bi-cultural practice and how best to integrate Western Eurocentric models of practice like the solution focused approach with Māori practices, principles and values.

Andrea has started a SF practitioner group in Dunedin in 2017 and she has been on the ASFA board since 2017.